INDIANS DONATE $19,906 TO OUR LADY OF THE WAYSIDE IN TODAY'S "FILL THE HOUSE FOR CHARITY"

CLEVELAND, OH --- The Cleveland Indians announced that Our Lady of the Wayside (OLW) raised $19,906 today for their cause as part of the Tribe's community initiative "Fill the House for Charity".

The Indians donated $5 of each ticket sold by the participating non-profit organization back to the charity. Also, $1 from every overall ticket sold for today's game was donated to Our Lady of the Wayside.

In addition, the Indians provided promotional support to help raise awareness for the Charity and its event date. This included radio and TV network promotions, a webpage dedicated to Fill the House for Charity—indians.com/fillthehouse—, inclusion in the game day's Batter Up! program, a scoreboard feature showcasing the organization and inclusion in pregame activities.

Included in today's pregame festivities were Lindsey Smith throwing out the ceremonial first pitch, Danielle Danburg singing the Canadian national anthem, Board Chairman Michael Jeans singing the American national anthem and Jack Vichell the "play ball" kid.
