Our Lady of the Wayside Opens New Car Lot An All-Day Celebration for their New Location!

(Cleveland) -- Our Lady of the Wayside (www.thewayside.org) has announced Thursday, October 15, 2009 will be the Grand Opening of their new location for their very successful car donation program. The new address is 11300 Brookpark Road, an area once occupied by Earl Oldsmobile.

“This location will allow more customer traffic, a spacious retail lot, and a more comfortable sales environment”, said Terry Davis, CEO of Our Lady of the Wayside.

To celebrate the move, the Wayside is pulling out all the stops.

The day will start with a live radio broadcast featuring WKNR Radio Personality and Fox 8 Sports Anchor Tony Rizzo who will lead the countdown to a ribbon-cutting ceremony at 12 noon with Sharon Hargrove, wife of Former Indians Manager Mike Hargrove.

“Sharon was eager to be involved. She has been a big supporter of the agency and it’s only appropriate she cuts the ribbon, since she helped us kick off the car donation program when it began 12 years ago,” said Davis.

Rizzo, host of “The Really Big Show” on ESPN850 WKNR, will be auctioning off an autographed Jim Brown football, as well as give away tickets to the Browns, Cavs and Indians tickets for next season. Also Slider will be stopping by, along with the Cavs Dance Team.

And if that isn’t enough, Wine a Ride by Our Lady of the Wayside. The Wayside will giveaway a donated 2001 Mazda 626 vehicle to a lucky listener who wins a key that starts the car. Interested parties can get all the details by going to WTAM.com, WMJI.com, WGAR.com and WMVX.com. You can also register to win at The Car Donation lot until Wednesday, October 14 at 1pm.
